Dear [Salutation],

Thank you for your ongoing generosity to Neighborhood House!

Your kindness has created new possibilities for individuals like Noé Martinez. As someone new to both the community and the country, he relied on Neighborhood House's services to invest in his future.

Both Noé and his wife took Adult Education classes to learn more English, prepare for college courses, and gain confidence in their ability to participate in their community. Noé also received Neighborhood House's Constance Currie Scholarship, which helped him achieve his lifelong dream of attending college where he's currently studying finance. Thanks to you, Neighborhood House could help Noe through every step of his journey.

Noé shared, "Here, you don't feel fears that most immigrants feel. You see help and opportunities. If I were going to use one word to describe Neighborhood House, it would be: limitless."

Today, I am writing to ask you to assure these same opportunities are available for generations to come. Will you help create limitless opportunities for future generations?

I hope you will include an estate gift to Neighborhood House next time you review your will or IRA beneficiaries. Your legacy can include:

- Securing Neighborhood House's future for this generation and the next.
- Providing current use funds straight to your community.
- Creating a renewable support system by investing in Neighborhood House's Endowment.
- Establishing an income for yourself or your heirs.

When you share your estate plans with Neighborhood House, you will become a part of the 1897 Legacy Society. This growing group of committed individuals are investing in providing basic needs, education, hope, and more for families in your community.

To learn more about what your estate gift can do for individuals in your community, like Noé return the card enclosed or contact me. More information is also available online at neighb.org/support/planned-and-legacy-giving/.

Thank you again for your continued investment in the future of Neighborhood House and the St. Paul area community!

Many thanks,
